

ENGILITY CORPORATION WEB NOTICE

Effective immediately, Divisions and Sub-Divisions acquired by Engility Corporation that have valid DDTC approved authorization from L-3 Communication Corporation will change as follows to: Engility Corporation. Due to the volume of authorizations requiring amendments to reflect this change, the Managing Director of DDTC is exercising the authority under 22 CFR 126.3 to waive the requirement for amendments to change currently approved authorizations.

All currently approved DSP authorizations of L-3 Communication Corporation that are identified relating to the Divisions and Sub Divisions that were acquired by Engility Corporation will not require an amendment to reflect the change to the new name and registration code. The license holder must attach a copy of this website notice to the currently approved license.

Pending authorizations received by DDTC identifying L-3 Communication Corporation as a party to the license from the divisions acquired by Engility Corporation, will be adjudicated without prejudice. The license holder must attach a copy of this website notice to the approved license.

New license applications received after February 1, 2013 with L-3 Communication coming from the acquired divisions by Engility Corporation identifying L-3 Communication Corporation as a party to the license may be returned without action for correction.

A copy of this website notice must be maintained by the license holder and presented with the relevant license to Customs & Border Protection at time of shipment.

All currently approved agreements held by a third party will require an amendment to be executed to reflect this name and registration code change. The agreement holder will be responsible for amending their agreement. The executed amendment will be treated as a minor amendment per 22 CFR 124.1(d) and must be submitted as such.

Pending agreement applications identifying L-3 Communication Corporation from the acquired divisions by Engility Corporation will be adju licated without prejudice. With the filing of the executed agreement, the agreement holder must attach a copy of this web notice as explanation for the name change in the executed agreement.
